Great Battle Is Under Way In the East

Petrograd Does Not Deny That the Germans Have Resumed the Offensive But Such a Movement Will Not Divert the Russian Intention to Invade Prussia Which Is Proceeding Slowly

VIOLENT FIGHTING STILL GOING ON IN FLANDERS

There is More Conflict In Reports From Various Capitals, As Received In London Than Has Been Apparent Heretofore In the Conflict — The Fighting In the West Continues and From the Best Information It Would Seem That Both Armies Are Obstinately Holding Their Positions.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Nov. 18.—Conflicting reports stand out prominently in what may be called the news of the war situation as viewed in London.

No change in the kaleidoscopic operations in Russian Poland has been more startling than the sudden resumption of the offensive on the part of the Germans, a movement by which the heart of the Russian line has been attacked and Warsaw again threatened.

As usual conflicting reports arrive from the neighborhood of these operations. Petrograd does not deny that Germans have resumed the offensive, but dispatches from the Russian capital declare that such a movement will not cause the slightest diversion from the Russian invasion of East Prussia, which is proceeding slowly but steadily. Meanwhile Berlin claims a victory near Lipno, imperilling the Russian forces, which, according to German reports must make a stand before crossing the Vistula river as a retirement behind that stream would be too difficult. Berlin reports that the Russians are near Kutno, but Vienna claims a victory for her ally at this place.

From this welter of conflicting reports emerges clearly the fact that a great battle is under way in western Poland on the line betwen the River Vistula and the River Warta.

It is equally clear that the Russian advance has been brought to a halt. In the meantime Russian progress continues through the Carpathians, before Cracow and in East Prussia.

Bad weather conditions still are having their effect on the operations in the western arena. Artillery duels continue but it is hardly likely that either side is attempting to make much use of its infantry.

Paris claims in an official communication that the invaders renewed their attacks to the south and east of Ypres, modifying the situation. At the same time the allies, according to this announcement have made marked progress at every point attacked—on the Yser, in the Vailly region, and on the heights of the Meuse.

Special dispatches announced heavy German losses in fresh fighting at Dixmude and the existence between Nieuport and Ypres of a protective sheet of water which renders any further danger of a German advance in that region negligible. The Germans are reported also as having completely abandoned the left bank of the Yser, the flooding of which endangers their possession of Dixmude.

The giving out of the admiralty of the official report of the captain of the British cruiser Glasgow on the naval engagement November 1, off the coast of Chile holds, beyond question, the fate of the cruiser Goodhope and Monmouth, but offers no solution to the mystery of the battleship Canopus. According to the Glasgow report, Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock, commander of the British squadron, signalled the Canopus that he was about to engage the enemy This is the only mention, in connection with this naval engagement of the one battleship present on the British side.

The only reference to naval activity is a report of the bombardment of Knocke and Zeebrugge on the Belgian coast by a British fleet. This is an operation which had been expected for some time, as the Germans had gathered considerable equipment and munitions of war at these ports.

TRAVELERS CHECKS MAY NOW BE SOLD.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Nov. 18.—Representatives of banking institutions and companies issuing travelers checks at a meeting yesterday afternoon decided that banking conditions abroad have so far advanced toward normal that the sale of travelers checks for use in all parts of the world can be resumed. It was urged that notices authorizing banks and other agents to sell the checks for use abroad be sent out today.

Panama Canal Not Garrisoned In Sufficient Numbers, In the Opinion of Gen. Wotherspoon

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov 18 —Declaring it would be impossible to defend the Panama canal and American territorial possessions against attack with present or proposed garrisons unless they could be rapidly reinforced, Major General Wotherspoon, retired chief of staff, in his report today, recommended the increase of the regular army to a strength of 205,000 enlisted men. He proposed that that force be augumented, through a system of reserves until there was created a mobile strength of 500,000 first line troops equipped for a six months' campaign

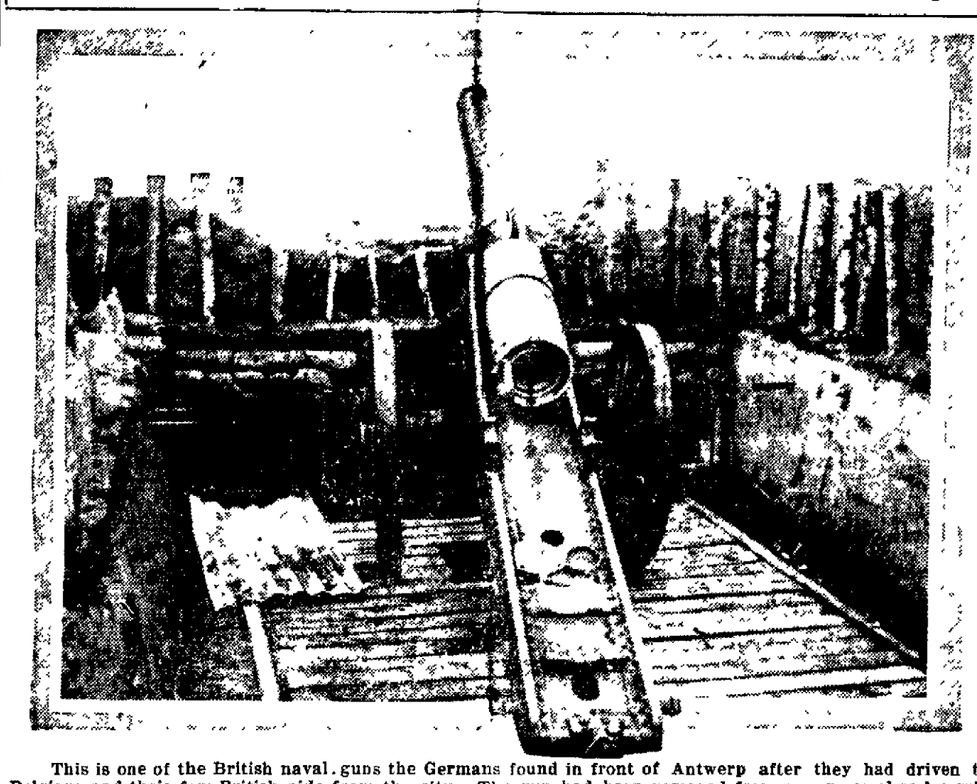

General Wotherspoon said that there was need for more forces to protect rear approaches to American coast defenses and those points not covered by fortresses and urged that the organized militia be developed to a strength of 300,000 men.

"It is manifest," General Wotherspoon asserted, "that the great waterway of the Panama canal cannot be protected against the operations of a first-class military power by the present or proposed garrison we contemplate placing there, without the power and ability to reinforce it rapidly from the United States.

"That an effective defense against an enterprising enemy in the Philippines could be made with a deficiency of 33 per cent of the manning details of the coast defenses of Manila and Subig Bay and with a mobile force of a little over 7,000 American troops, supplemented by less than 6,000 Philippine scouts is manifestly impossible; that we can retain our valuable territory of Alaska in its isolated position against an enemy with any military power by placing there a garrison of less than 500 men verges on the ridiculous, unless we have ample forces at home to occupy that territory in the very earliest stages of an impending conflict As regards the Hawaiian Islands, all military persons will recognize that the proposed garrison in

British Naval Gun Captured By Germans In Trenches Before Antwerp

This is one of the British naval guns the Germans found in front of Antwerp after they had driven the Belgians and their few British aids from the city. The gun had been removed from a war vessel and carried inland and there placed in a pit. There has been much criticism of the failure of the British to give sufficient aid to the Belgians before Antwerp. It has been said that the resignation of Prince Louis of Battenberg, who has just resigned as first sea lord of the admiralty, was criticized for this. Winston Churchill, chief of the British naval department, has also come in for criticism.

American Federation of Labor Puts Those Who Profit From Toil Of Children Upon Unworthy List

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—The effort to adjust the jurisdictional differences between the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' International Alliance has failed so far as the present session of the American Federation of Labor is concerned.

The special committee to which the dispute was referred reported today that after hearing all parties of interest the committee was unable to adjust the differences and recommended that the president of the carpenters' union, president of the sheet metal workers, president of the federation, and president of the building trades department of the federation, be named as a committee to investigate the work over which the two unions are deadlocked and to continue with the disputants with a view of bringing about a final agreement. The work over which the two unions are at odds is the erection of metal trimmings for buildings, each claiming it has exclusive right to do such work. The dispute resulted last February in the carpenters withdrawing from the building trades' department of the federation, but not from the federation itself.

The committee on education made its report approving various subjects contained in the annual report of the executive council of the federation. Among these subjects was a declaration on child labor. The convention endorsed the following as the attitude of organized labor:

"We declare that any who profit by the toil of children at all, or by the labor of other minors required to toil more than eight hours a day, are unfair and unworthy of the patronage of true patriots and those who desire human welfare."

Carranza Has Repudiated Note Of Resignation

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—General Carranza has repudiated the telegram sent for him by General Pablo Gonzales to General Gutierrez, in which the first chief was represented as saying he would retire. This was the announcement today in an official dispatch from American Consul Silliman.

Carranza declared he had been misunderstood. In the telegram Gonzales sent on behalf of Carranza, the first chief was described as ready to resign if both he and Villa relinquished their commands and met in Havana not later than November 25. No mention was made of the man to whom the executive power was to be delivered, and Carranza now declares he never intended to resign in favor of Gutierrez and will not deliver his place to any other than a man whom he could trust to carry out conditions he imposes

While American consul Silliman reported that great efforts were being made to patch up the difficulties through intermediaries, official advices said big troop movements were under way and that a battle was imminent north of Mexico City where the Villa troops were now advancing southward.

In connection with Carranza's repudiation of the message sent for him by Gonzales, Villa adherents here declared that at the Torreon conference which was convened during the summer in an attempt to heal the first breach between Carranza and Villa Gonzales acted as spokesman for Carranza and signed the agreement which was later similarly repudiated by the first chief

Mrs Otto Scott and son Owen of Alger, O., are visiting Mrs. Roy Pennick of Channel street.

HALF FROZEN MEN TAKEN FROM LAKE AFTER 24 HOURS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Toledo, Nov 18.—Four Toledo men, exhausted, half starved and nearly frozen, were rescued from Lake Erie, near Kingsville, Ontario, Tuesday afternoon, after they had been tossed about in gales and snowstorms for nearly 24 hours, in the little auxiliary yawl Luella, owned by Robert D Peters and now are being held as prisoners of war by the Canadian authorities at Windsor, Canada, on a charge of being German spies.

The four men in the boat were William H. Bleschke, a grocer, Otto Peters, Frank Hoyt and Dwight T. Gould.

Bleschke has a pronounced German accent and it is believed that is what caused the party to fall under suspicions.

"I WUZ LOOKIN' FER A PRESENT FER MY SON LAW TEW DAY, AN' I ASKED TH FLOOR WALKER WHERE THEY KEPT THE SMOKIN' JACKETS, AN HE SAID, 'SMOKIN JACKETS? A LADY OR GENTLEMAN MA AM?' LAND SAKES! WHAT'S THIS WORLD COMIN' TEW ANY WAY?"

Newark People Interested In $40,000 Estate

(Special to The Advocate.)

New York, Nov. 18.—Miss Olive V. Allison—sister, in Newark, of Homer Allison of No. 105 Moull street, and daughter, in Newark, R. F. D., No. 7, of Mrs. Elizabeth Allison—left an estate of about $40,000 in personal property when she passed away on September 25 last, according to an application made to the surrogates' court, which has been granted to advertise asking all creditors of the estate to present their claims against the estate within the next four weeks so that George W. Allison, decedent's brother, of Hollis, L. I., who is the applicant, can then file and secure the letters of administration upon the estate by furnishing a bond of about $5,000.00, instead of $80,000.00

Outside of her mother, her Newark brother and the petitioner, the decedent, is survived also by two other brothers—Samuel, of No. 670 East Eighteenth street, and Charles F. Allison, of No 43 West Thirty-second street

In his application for the order for the privilege of advertising for the next four weeks asking creditors of the estate to step forward and present their claims against the estate, which privilege was granted by Surrogate Cohalan, Mr Allison said that he believed that the decedent left no debts, but so as to avoid giving such a large bond ($80,000.00) he was advised by his attorney to use the method which he is pursuing At the end of four weeks he will file his application for the letters thus saving the financial expense of paying for a $80,000,000 surety bond

U.S. Cruiser Is Fired Upon by Turkish Forts

Brief Report Made to the Navy Department by the Commander of the Vessel of an Incident Which May Cause Complications of the Most Delicate Character to Arise for Settlement

HAD BEEN PROTECTING SUBJECTS OF THE ALLIES

As Well As Those of the United States In Turkish City and the Question is a Mooted One Whether the Tennessee's Authority Extended Further Than to Look After the Lives and Property of Americans—Will Await Developments Before Declaring the Episode a Hostile Act.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—The United States cruiser Tennessee, or her launch—probably the latter—was fired upon yesterday by the Turkish forts at Smyrna.

Captain Benton C. Decker of the cruiser, reporting the incident today to the navy department, gave no details of the firing but added that fears had been felt for the safety of the American consulate.

While awaiting further reports from Captain Decker and others from Ambassador Morgenthau and Consul-General Horton, officials here have two theories.

One is that the cruiser may have been sending a guard ashore to protect the consulate and Americans and other foreigners. They drew this from Decker's statement that fears had been felt for the safety of the consulate.

The other is that Captain Decker had called on Consul General Horton, who after returning the call was being taken back to shore by the cruiser's launch, which may have been returning after hours of entry prescribed by port officials which are very strict.

Before regarding the firing upon the American ship as a hostile act, officials here are inclined to await further reports, and hold the belief that it might have been a misunderstanding or the act of some local official which will quickly be corrected in Constantinople.

Those officials who regard the incident as a misunderstanding of some kind say that had Captain Decker been convinced that the Turkish forts were firing upon his ship as an act of hostility, the big fighting machine would not have steamed away to the harbor of Chios without further incident.

While there is no question of the right of the Tennessee to protect Americans and their interests in the Mediterranean the question of protection of citizens of England, Russia, and France which are at war with the Porte, may raise delicate situations.

THREE SOLID SHOTS REPORTED FIRED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chios Aegean, Nov. 17—The American armored cruiser Tennessee arrived in this port today. It is stated that yesterday while the captain of the Tennessee was in the ship's launch, which is flying the American flag on his way to pay the customary visits on the Turkish officials at Smyrna three solid shots were fired on the boat by the forts.

The American ambassador, Henry Morgenthau without investigating the incident, it is said, immediately ordered the Tennessee from Turkish waters at the request of the Turkish officials.

Chios, at which the cruiser Tennessee has arrived, is capital of the island of the same name located about four miles off the coast of Asia Minor and near the gulf of Smyrna. The island formerly belonged to Turkey but as a result of the Balkan war was turned over to Greece. A portion of the population of sixty thousand are Greeks.

Despatches from Athens yesterday reported that the Tennessee had arrived at the port of Chios, in the Gulf of Smyrna, and that her appearance had put a stop to ill treatment of British, Russian and French residents. The authorities of Smyrna, the despatch added, fearing a bombardment, had left for the interior.

Captain Benton Clark Decker is in command of the Tennessee which left New York on August 6th, with nearly $6,000,000 in gold on board for the relief of the American tourists stranded in Europe. The warship first went to England and then to France and finally entered the Mediterranean where she visited several ports in pursuance of her relief work.

Directors of the U. S. Motor Company Accused In Court of Wasting Ten Million Dollars

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Nov. 18 —An accounting from the directors of the defunct United States Motor company, which had an authorized capital of $42,500,000, which was placed in the hands of receivers two years ago, was sought in a suit filed in the supreme court here today by Emanuel Metzger, a stockholder

New receivers were also prayed for in the suit In the papers filed, it is alleged, that the greater part of the proceeds of a $65,000,000 bond issue made in 1911 was wasted by the defendants It is further alleged that altogether the defendants wasted $10,000,00 of the company's assets.

The directors of the company owned plants at Dayton, O., Hartford, Conn., Detroit, Providence, R. I., Newcastle, Ind., and Tarrytown, N. Y.

The company was incorporated in August, 1903, in New Jersey under the name of the International Motor company, which was changed to United States Motor company some years after. Soon after the organization of the latter company it acquired a majority interest in the capital stock of a number of companies engaged in the manufacture of automobiles, steel and gas engines and marine and stationary engines.

In the latter part of 1912 the Maxwell Motor company purchased at receivers' sale the properties and assets of the United States Motor company and various other automobile manufacturing concerns.

Apparently the United States Motor company does not exist today as a corporation.

HERRICK

WILL BE RELIEVED OF AMBASSADORIAL DUTIES LATE THIS MONTH.

Gracefully Declines Invitations to Make Social Visits Before Leaving France.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Nov. 18.—Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador who is to be relieved of his duties late this month by William G. Sharp, has engaged passage for the United States on the steamer Rochambeau, which will sail on November 28.

Mr. Herrick and his wife have received invitations from distinguished persons in public life in France and England to visit them before leaving Europe, but they declined because they consider that this is not the time for social visits.

Queen Mary of England has written Mrs. Herrick a personal letter, expressing appreciation for what she and other American women have done for the British wounded in Paris.

Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign minister has written Mr. Herrick in the same vein, and David Lloyd George, the chancellor of the Exchequer of Great Britain, has sent a letter of tahnks to Mr. Herrick, "in behalf of the British government" for his services to British subjects.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. Herrick will, at their desire, be as quiet as possible. There will be no farewell banquets nor any other demonstrations, because as the ambassador says, these days in France are extremely tense and sad.

MAY ASK STATE TO PARTICIPATE IN HERRICK RECEPTION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—Those who conceived the idea of having a mammoth reception in Cleveland for Ambassador Myron T. Herrick when he returns to his home here in December, after being relieved of his official duties at Paris by Congressman W. G. Sharp, newly-appointed ambassador, today decided to ask the state to participate in the event. A formal invitation to Governor Cox and Governor-elect Willis, and other state officials as well, are expected to be issued tomorrow when a luncheon is held here to formulate plans for welcoming the distinguished visitor.

REVIVAL INTEREST AT JACKSONTOWN

The series of revival services being cidnucted in the Jacksontown U. B. church by Rev. A. B. Cox of this city, continue in interest and power. Rev. Cox spoke Tuesday evening on "How shall we escape, if we neglect to great salvation?" and at the close five persons confessed Christ.

Services will be held each evening this week at 7:30, sun time.

Wednesday evening will be "Fraternal Men's" night: on Thursday evening a large delegation with an orchestra from the Newark Tenth Street U. B. church will be present; the Men's Brotherhood, 100 strong, from the Hebron M. E. church, will be present.

On Friday evening the Jacksontown Grange will be present in a body; and on Saturday evening a large delegation from East Newark will be there.

Many people from Newark are attending and on last evening two of the persons who went forward were from Newark.

In case the crowds are too large for the church, overflow meetings will be held in the Jacksontown M. E. church.

On Thursday evening, Rev. J. F. Kanuth of the Hebron M. E. church and Rev. M. R. White of the Newark Tenth Street Church, will be present and assist Rev. Cox and Rev. Taylor.

WHITE SLAVER IS GIVEN SENTENCE OF THREE YEARS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—Anzelm Mylnarczyk, aged 51, former editor of a religious newspaper, today was sentenced to serve three years in the Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary by Federal Judge Clarke, for violating the Mann white slave act.

Mlynarczyk was found guilty last week by a jury in federal court, of bringing Lydia Zeiner, 20, from her home at Coal Center, Penn., to his home in Cleveland where for two months she was kept a prisoner until liberated by the police. He served six months in the workhouse for the offense before the case was taken up by federal authorities.

PRESIDENT WILSON NOW WORKING ON ANNUAL MESSAGE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—President Wilson today began work on his annual message to congress which he will deliver in person at the opening of the regular session in December.

While the message has not yet taken definite shape, Mr. Wilson is expected to discuss Philippine independence, conservation, the Mexican question, government ownership of merchant ships and the effect of the European war on the United States.

PIPE LINES ARE DECLARED TO BE COMMON CARRIERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—The interstate commerce commission announced today that pipe lines had been declared by the supreme court to be common carriers subject to the commission's regulations, it now was proceeding actively in accordance with its original terms which brings into question "the reasonableness of the rates, rules, regulations and practices of pipe lines."

REPUBLICANS MAY DEMAND RECOUNT OF TOLEDO VOTE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Toledo, Nov. 18.—Defeated Republican candidates are considering filing a demand for a recount of the votes cast November 3, on the ground of alleged election irregularities in which many persons are said to be implicated.

One claim is that in several precincts, where the crosses were placed outside the ring on the ballots, they were counted straight Democratic votes.

William I. Cordell, defeated Republican candidate for representative to congress, stated Tuesday night that he and many other defeated candidates were considering the advisability of demanding a recount of the returns.

REPULSE

Bombardment of Reims Continued—Landwehr Batteries Lost Their Strength.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Nov. 16.—The French official statement given out in Paris this afternoon says that yesterday saw numerous artillery duels and some isolated infantry attacks all of which were repulsed.

The text of the communication follows:

"The day of yesterday, November 17, passed much as did the day before. There were numerous artillery exchanges and some isolated attacks on the part of the enemy's infantry, all of which were repulsed.

"From the North sea to the Lys the front was subjected to a fairly active bombardment, particularly Nieuport and to the east and the south of Ypres.

"Near Bixschoote and Zouaves, charging with the bayonet, brilliantly took possession of a forest which had been disputed betwen the enemy and ourselves for three days.

"To the south of Ypres an offensive movement on the part of the enemy's infantry was repulsed by our troops. The English army also maintained its front.

"From Arras to the Oise there is nothing new to report.

"In the region of Craonne our trillery on several occasions secured the advantage over the batteries of the enemy.

"The bombardment of Reims has continued. From Reims to the Argonne there is nothing new to report. In the region of St. Mihiel, in spite of the counterattacks by the Germans we have retained possession of the western part of the village of Chauvoncourt.

"In Alsace, the Landweir battalions sent into the region of Sainte Marie Au Mines, have had to be taken out for the reason that they lost one-half of their effective strength."

FROM GUTTERMOST TO THE UTTERMOST

That salvation is more than reformation or resolution was strongly emphasized by Miss Rudy in her address last night in Plymouth Congregational church. She quoted the testimony of a young man who was saved from a life of sin and vice in her services in Toledo. "Saved from the gutter-most to the uttermost." This, said Miss Rudy, is the kind of salvation the Bible advocates. It is nothing less than a miracle of God. Sin is real and so is salvation. Many are not ready to accept it because they can't understand how the Blood of Christ comes in saving contact with a repentant, believing soul. Nicodemus had his perplexities and he asked. "How can these things be?" But Jesus knowing that the inquiry did not really rise from his head, went down past his intellect and put a slice of heaven into his heart and Nicodemus found his answer in the peace that the world had never given.

The results in this meeting are most encouraging. Come and enjoy these services. Every night except Saturday at 7:30 o'clock.

MAY LOSE ONE TOE AS RESULT OF FROST BITE

Charles Harmon, who was brought to the Newark Sanitarium, Tuesday morning, in an unconscious condition from the effect of cold after spending the night in a field west of the city, may lose a toe from his left foot as a result of his harrowing experience. His condition Wednesday was much improved. It has not been definitely decided that the operation will be necessary.

EX-GOV. HARMON TO MAKE ADDRESS TO COMMISSION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, Nov. 18.—Former Governor Judson Harmon and Rufus B. Smith, Cincinnati lawyer, are among those who will address the first meeting of the commission appointed last spring by Governor Cox to investigate and make recommendations for reforms of judicial proceedings in the state. The meeting will be held here Friday afternoon, it was announced today.

CARRANZA GENERAL KILLED IN BATTLE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—General Jose Carbajal, a Carranza general, was killed in an engagement near Torreon, Mexico, yesterday, it is said, as his troops defeated Villa forces that attacked General Jesus Carranza, a brother of the constitutionalist first chief.

REPRISAL

THREATENED AT FRANKFORT, ALL SUBJECTS OF HOSTILE NATIONS MUST LEAVE.

Women Protest to London About British System of Imprisoning Those Captured.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Nov. 18.—via The Hague and London—The expulsion of all subjects of countries hostile to Germany from the city of Frankfort-on-the-Main, reference to which was made recently in these dispatches, resulted from an order issued by the chief of the general staff of the army. This order was made public today, and, according to it, the subjects of hostile countries without distinction of age or sex, must leave the places enumerated in the city and district of Frankfort.

In this connection the Tagelsche Rundschau, says:

"We hear from a well informed source that further and sharper measures along this same line will be taken in the immediate future.

"From Russia we hear that resident Germans are obliged to live in concentration camps. If this information is found to be correct Germany will retaliate by placing all Russian subjects in Germany in concentration camps.

"Against the British system of imprisoning, German women have protested to London in the sharpest way, through neutral powers.

"Whether Germany will be obliged to retaliate by imprisoning English women now residing in Germany, will depend upon the outcome of these negotiations."

STRIKE GAS WELL ON BRYN DU FARM

Contractor Joseph Shirer has brought in a gas well on the Bryn Du farm, east of Granville, owned by J. S. Jones, that is said to be good for a half million cubic feet of gas every 24 hours.

The well is being tubed today and will be used by Mr. Jones to supply his home and those of his tenants with nature's fuel. The well is said to be a strong one and the gas will be connected with mains over the far mat an early period.

COTTON LOAN IS FULLY SUBSCRIBED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—With the $135,000,000 cotton loan fund fully subscribed steps were taken today to clear the way for the actual transfer of the money to southern cotton producers. The federal reserve board, acting as the central committee, which has general supervision of the fund, carried out the provisions of the misunderstanding with subscribing banks by naming W. P. G. Harding, and Paul M. Warburg, of the board, A. H. Wiggin and James S. Alexander, of New York, James B. Forgan of Chicago, Festus J. Wade, of St. Louis, Levi L. Rue, of Philadelphia and William A. Gaston, of Boston, a "cotton loan committee."

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF DANDRUFF

End Itching Scalp and Stop Falling Hair—At Once.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

OUCH! LAME BACK; RUB LUMBAGO OR BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

$85,000 FIRE EARLY TODAY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Winston, N. C., Nov. 18.—Three buildings in the Casher Block, on the main business street here were destroyed by fire early today, the damage is estimated at more than $85,000.

A defective motor is believed to have started the conflagration.

Dream on, Kid!

A little girl in Linwood is just about old enough to have a beau, and she is perfectly crazy about any pompadoured, tall, skinny lad that—well, let us tell our little incident without adding adjectives.

The maiden's lovely boy friend went out of town for a week, but she wrote letters. And the maiden's sister started kidding.

"What!" exclaimed sis. "Another letter from Rob? When do you expect to marry him, dear?"

"Oh, very soon," cried the little one, encouraged by such a display of sympathy. "Robert has only two years more in the preparatory school. And then he will go to Harvard and be graduated with the highest honors. After he gets his degree he will go out west and make his fortune, and then we shall be married. Oh, it all seems so beautiful!"

"Dream on, kid!" exclaimed the older sister tenderly. "Do you want to go to another picture show with me this evening? There's a long time to wait, and we've got to put in the time somehow."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Honeymoon Once Chaproned.

In "Books and Bookmen" it is observed that "in the eighteenth century it was not considered bon ton for a young couple to go on a honeymoon without a chaperon. The practice must have survived into the last century, for in 'Mansfield Park,' when Maria Bertram marries Mr. Rushworth, Julia, the younger sister, goes with them." The custom certainly lingered on, in out of the way places at least, till the middle of the nineteenth century.

"My mother," writes a correspondent in the Manchester Guardian, "was married in 1853. Before that date she had been the bridesmaid of a girl friend who had married a young lawyer. They both came of middle class families in very comfortable circumstances. She went with them on their honeymoon. She always assured us that in those faraway days it was quite the correct thing for the bridesmaid to form one of the party."

Living Cups and Saucers.

The foot of the limpet is a kind of sucking disk by which it anchors itself securely to the rocks. Its tiny tongue is in reality a wonderful horny structure armed with about 160 rows of teeth, with which it rasps the seaweeds and marine litter which form its food.

There are several branches of the limpet family. One is called the "keyhole" limpet and another the "cup and saucer." The former owes its name to a keyhole shaped opening on the top through which the animal—for the limpet is really an animal—squirts out water.

The "cup and saucer" limpet has on its underside a sort of curved plate, not unlike a tiny teacup, surrounded by a saucer-like shell. To complete the resemblance there is at the extremity of the long tooth ribbon an organ not unlike a miniature teaspoon.

The Demon Barber.

The story of the "demon barber," his misdirected energy and undue personal attention to customers, a story that has been made famous in ballad and on the stage, was this: He lived at 186 Fleet street, London, next to St. Dunstan's church. Under his shaving chair there was a trapdoor. When Mr Todd, making some excuse, left his customer—or client, for this is now the genteel term—and went into an adjoining room he drew a bolt. The trapdoor turned over and threw the customer into a cellar. There he was murdered, and his body was made into mutton pies, which were sold at a neighboring shop at a reasonable price and much relished. This story was believed by all for many years, and Dickens mentions it in "Martin Chuzzlewit," yet it was without foundation.

Knew Her Way.

The ladies were discussing a wedding which took place in their church the previous day. "And, do you know," continued the first best informed lady of the party, "just as Frank and the widow started up the aisle to the altar every light in the church went out!" This startling bit of information was greeted by a number of "Ohs!" "What did the couple do?" finally inquired one. "Kept on going. The widow knew her way."—Pall Mall Gazette.

These Are Stirring Days

IN THE GARMENT SECTION

The near approach of real Winter weather has aroused Milady to the fact that she needs a new suit, or, perhaps, a stylish yet serviceable coat. That she realizes this is best described in the captions above, for these are truly stirring days in the garment section. Busy from opening to closing time, that's the order here now. Most women are awake to the fact that we are offering incomparable values. The equal of which is not expected until after the holidays. The solution to this is simple: Manufacturers have been besieging us for the past few weeks to take a part of their surplus stocks from their hands at prices far below market value. We bought a goodly portion of the most desirable styles, up-to-the-minute garments that fairly radiate with Fashion's latest dictates. These we are offering to you at tremendously low prices. Let us say, right here, as firmly and convincingly as we can, that no better buying opportunity has presented itself this season. As a woman of keen judgment with an appreciation of good, honest values, we welcome your inspection and comparison.

These Coats Spell Value

UP-TO-THE-MINUTE STYLISH MODELS

BROADTAIL FUR, $5.95

Just imagine buying these stylish coats for so little money. Tailored in a very late style, full lined with large roll collar. A complete range of sizes up to 44. Garments that cannot be duplicated—at each $5.95

URAL LAMB COATS, $12.50

Here's another headliner that is simply a remarkable value. Made from fine quality of black ural lamb in a most practical style, 48 inches long. Lined throughout. A garment that means the saving of $4.00 or $5.00—at each $12.50

HANDSOME ZIBELINES, $12.50

Jaunty garments tailored from all-wool imported zibeline with the new full back and low-belted effect. Comes in black, navy, copen and brown. We have never before sold its equal for less than $16.75—now, at each $12.50

KURLTEX COATS, $18.75

Salts' kurltex, a distinctly new material this season. Comes in black, navy and brown. Made up in a charming style with sealette collar and wide sleeves; $22.50 values—at each $18.75

COATS, $25.00 TO $45.00

Between these range of prices will be found beautiful models that defy description. Suffice to say they are products of the best designers and come in the very new fabrics—at $25.00 to $45.00

From a Woman's Point of View

Just at the entrance of the garment section one comes face to face with a really beautiful and complete display of everything new in marabou and ostrich sets, also separate muffs, scarfs, stolls and capes. Such a wonderful blending of colors, such perfect combinations of the various strands of ostrich and marabou. Light, fluffy and comfortable, yet giving the warmth and protection of natural fur. To see them is to want them, for they're really quite irresistible. They come in plain colors or with strands of white intermingled with black, brown, grey and red fox. Quite handsome to wear yet very reasonable to buy. Pretty sets being priced as low as $8.75

The Suit Sale Goes Merrily On

MORE ENTHUSED BUYERS DAILY

Women came to this sale expecting much—as they always do when we inaugurate a sale such as this—but we hardly believe they had anticipated the seemingly impossible values that we had ready for them. Styles were better, assortments larger, and prices lower than they had ever expected. Perhaps you have already been here. If so, you can readily verify the above statements. If you are wanting a suit, don't overlook this golden opportunity.

Outling his view of the army's first line requirements, General Wotherspoon said:

"Careful consideration of our needs would indicate the advisability and necessity for having at all times available at home and, in addition to the necessities in our foreign possessions in the first line of our military establishment a mobile force of 500,000 thoroughly trained and thoroughly equipped fighting men, with adequate supplies for the operation of this force for a period of at least six months. This is a conclusion that seems to have been reached by all those who have given careful consideration to this question. It is also agreed that we should have as a second line a thoroughly equipped and trained force of organized militia of not less than 300,000 men properly proportioned as to its staff and several arms with stores and supplies necessary for its operation in the field for a like period."

General Wotherspoon outlined the plan through which he would double the strength of the regular army and create the reserves. The enlisted men would serve a short time with the colors, then pass into the reserves for a period of five or more years, being at all times under obligation to respond in case of national need.

"Assuming," the report continues, "the adoption of a short-term of enlistment say three years—for the passage of the men thoroughly trained in the school of the regular or standing army into the reserves, and that men so trained should not be held in the first reserve for a longer period than five years, it would appear that the size of the regular or standing army to be used as a school for the training of reservists, should be about 205,00 enlisted men.

"All from such an army, organized on a basis of three years training, we discharge yearly that increment below the grade of sergeant which had completed its three years' training, we would have, with due allowance for deaths, etc., in the first year of its complete operation, an army of 263,700 (205,000 plus 58,700 reservists); in the second year an army of 322,400 (205,000 plus 117,400 reservists); in the third year, an army of 381,100 (205,000 plus 176,100 reservists); in the fourth year, an army of 439,800 (205,000 plus 234,800 reservists); in the fifth year, an army of 498,500 (205,000 plus 293,500 reservists). After this the army would be maintained at the last figure, and in addition we would be accumulating trained men in the second reserve at the rate of about 55,000 each year."

General Wotherspoon continued the proposed system would be economical inasmuch as the reserve officers and men would receive pay only during their active service and on being called to the colors. He added that he saw no reason why the same principle as to reserves should not be applied to the organized militia.

Elk Initiation and Banquet Last Evening A Pronounced Success

The faults of all our brothers
We write upon the sand,
Their virtues carved in marble
By Love's enduring hand
And of the Final Session
When our Lodge work is done,
And the Grand Exalted Ruler
Will call his children home,
To praise us for our kindness,
For the battles we have fought
As we twine around our glasses
The Elks' "forget-me-not,"
And while the last eleven soundeth,
Its summons grand and dread,
We shall greet our absent brothers,
The living and the dead.

Tuesday, November 17, 1914, will long be remembered in the annals of local Elkdom, for on the evening of that day twenty novitiates were initiated into Newark lodge No. 391 by the officers of Columbus lodge, No. 37, assisted by the Columbus Elk Glee club, a sumptuous banquet was enjoyed and the festivities of the occasion were only equalled by the good cheer which prevailed throughout the banquet hall.

A special car on the Ohio Electric interurban brought seventy-five members of the Columbus lodge to Newark, twenty-four of whom were members of the glee club. They were met by a reception committee at the station and escorted to the Elk club rooms where a light luncheon had been prepared for them.

The initiatory ceremonies were conducted by the Columbus officers, after the regular routine of business had been concluded, and during which time Exalted Ruler Fletcher S. Scott announced the appointment of this year's minstrel committee as follows: Harry D. Hale, J. R. Cooper, Homer Jones, Dr. Jud L. Lewis, John Ankele and J. W. Koblens. This committee will meet in the very near future and arrange for the annual event in Elkdom which has been recognized as the one big social and entertaining feature of the winter season.

After a recess of half an hour the lodge was called to order by Exalted Ruler John Carlisle and the work exemplified by the visiting brothers, all of whom were in full dress. The glee club assisted and their sweet music left an impression with all as the beautiful ritualistic work of the Elks was carried out. William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis" was recited by Charles Lum, and his elocution was one of the pleasing events of the initiation.

The class was composed of the following well known Newark citizens: Judge Robbins Hunter, Fred Woltgen, Dr. J. T. Harbottle, J. W. Mercer, F. B. Goodwin, J. M. Diebold, William J. Ferry, R. J. Vaughn, Joseph H. Green, J. R. Speck, Mat Kneupfer, Frank Korb, Henry Schnaidt, T. J. Everett, William Young, Frank Muenz, H. C. Shaw, R. C. Campbell, Richard Brooke and Gus Weigand.

At the conclusion of the work the Elks formed in line and marched to the Moose hall, where the banquet was held. The hall had been gorgeously decorated, the walls being adorned with large American flags, bunting of the Elk colors, purple and white, falling in graceful festoons throughout. Facing the banqueters was a large-sized clock dial with the hands pointing at the eleventh hour, dear in the hearts of all Elkdom. Potted plants, ferns and shrubbery formed a background for the speakers' and officers' tables that almost might remind one of Fairyland. On all the tables were beautiful bouquets of cut flowers in tall glass vases. The speakers' and officers' table was placed at the head of the banquet room and another parallel with it seated the members of the glee club. Four long tables, the entire length of the hall, seated all the other banqueters. The tables were resplendent with their shining glass and silverware and twenty trained colored waiters in immaculate white suits, served the tables. The menu was prepared by Caterer Joseph Kuster, jr., and he was given carte blanc to spare no pains or expense in making it an event par excellence. Caterer Kuster superintended all arrangements and to him much credit is due for the splendid cuisine and the many good-things which he prepared. Following was the menu:

Martinie
Blue Points
Wafers
Celery Olives Midget Pickles
Roast Young Turkey, Nut Dressing
Mashed Potatoes Cranberry Sauce
French Peas in Cases
Virginia Dare
Crab Salad
Cheese Wafers Coffee
Cigars Cigarettes

At the conclusion of the feast Hon. James R. Fitzgibbon, the toastmaster of the evening, prefaced the program with an introductory address. Those who know Mr. Fitzgibbon best know that no better choice could have been made in the selection of a master of ceremonies. With Chesterfieldian grace he started the program off in an unruffled and adulatory manner. His quick perception and keen discernment, with his natural facetiousness, drollery and humor, together with the waggishness which he injected into his introduction of the speakers, sustained the reputation which he enjoys of being, not only one of Newark's most polished and delectable post-prandial orators, but equally in the element of his best endeavor as a purveyor of wit, humor, and wisdom in the role of toastmaster.

Harry D. Hale, of the Advocate, was the first speaker called upon, and responded to the toast: "Welcome Brothers." Mr. Hale spoke of the graciousness of the visitors in accepting the invitation of Newark lodge to assist in the initiatory ceremonies and program of the evening, and complimented them upon the exemplification of the work of the ritual. He said that the newly-made brothers might point with pride to the fact that they were members of the class of November 17, 1914, being made members of that great fraternal organization, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, through the courteousness of the Columbus brothers. The speaker praised the royal entertainment of the Columbus Glee club, and then extended a welcome to one of the distinguished guests, Hon. Clyde Reasoner, president of the Ohio State Association of Elks, telling of his kindness in assisting the local lodge at its entertainments whenever called upon to do so. Mr. Hale closed by extending a hearty welcome and greeting to all the visiting brothers on behalf of Newark Lodge, No. 391.

President Clyde Reasoner was then called upon by the toastmaster to respond to "State Organization." Mr. Reasoner is a great favorite in Newark—in fact, Newark lodge considers him as one of its adopted brothers. He has lent his talents to the local order on several occasions and his sweet, rich voice has always created a most favorable impression. President Reasoner greeted his brothers around the banquet board and then told of the work of State organization and what he hoped to accomplish during his administration. The speaker said he had visited fifty-eight lodges in the state and hoped to meet with everyone before the next convention was held. His address was interesting throughout and greatly enjoyed.

Hon. B. L. Bargar, safety director of Columbus, was next introduced by Toastmaster Fitzgibbon as a substitute for Mayor George Karb, who was unavoidably detained. Mr. Bargar found instant favor with his auditors and proved to be a regular Chauncey Depew as an after-dinner speaker. His impromptu address was spiced throughout with wit and humor of that nature which keeps everyone in good humor. He told of his liking and friendship for Newark and its people, how in years gone by he had visited the Licking county capital and of the pleasure that he always derived from those visits. He described an entertainment of visiting officers during the old encampment days and then related the return hospitality of those officers and his vivid word-painting of that memorable occasion was one of the hits of the evening.

C. C. Janes, one of the state capitol's leading citizens and men of affairs was next introduced to respond to "Elkdom." The subject could not have been in better or more capable hands for if there ever was truly a more sincere believer in the principals of Elkdom he has not yet been located. Mr. Janes has the distinguished honor of being the only man ever elected to serve two terms as an exalted ruler of No. 37, the custom not being in favor with the many lodges throughout the country. Mr Janes spoke of his love for the order and the many great things which it has accomplished. He told of its innumerable charities, how it is always ready to respond at any time in an endeavor to assist with the uplift of humanity and the good and better things of life. The speaker closed by advising the new brothers to study well the teachings of Elkdom and as a consequence they could not but help be better men. "There is nothing more sublime," he said, "in the friendship that exists among all Elks, no matter who or where you may be. The cherry words 'Hello Bill,' is the sweetest music that could be heard when he enters the portals of a new clime and it always means that there is a welcome and a friendship awaiting him among his brothers of the antlered herd."

During the course of the addresses and immediately after the Columbus Elk glee club rendered a program of solo and chorus work of all the late popular songs and interspersed it with classic ballads. The Elk Glee club of the capital city has a reputation that is national in its scope. For years they have attended all the Grand Lodge meetings and have always been the cynosure in those cities where the sessions have been held. Their chorus work is near perfect and the smoothness with which their rendition is accomplished is almost marvelous. Newark lodge was indeed fortunate in securing them for the evening and they offered their services gratuitously and their coming will long be remembered by all present who listened entranced to their many sweet melodies.

Over three hundred and fifty plates were served and during the progress of the banquet and program of the evening Hawkins and Nutter's orchestra furnished a delightful potopuri of all the latest music. The orchestra is composed of splendid musicians and they contributed in a large measure to the success of the evening's entertainment.

The success of the affair of Tuesday is due to the committee having it in charge, Messrs. John Ankele chairman, Jay Cooper, W. W. Gard Walter Daugherty, Homer Jones and George Grindle.

WILSON SEES BRIGHTNESS OF PROSPECT

FOR THE FUTURE OF COUNTRY'S BEST INTERESTS, IN NEW LAWS' OPERATIONS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—"A future clear and bright with promise of the best things," was the way President Wilson summed up his view of the business prospect last night in a letter to Secretary McAdoo, of the Treasury Department, congratulating him upon the opening of the new Federal reserve bank system.

"Fundamental wrongs once righted, as they may now easily and quickly be," wrote the President, "all differences will clear away. We are all in the same boat, though apparently we had forgotten it. We now know the port for which we are bound. We have, and shall have more and more as our new understandings ripen, a common discipline of patriotic purpose. We shall advance and advance together, with a new spirit, a new enthusiasm, a new cordiality of spirited co-operation. It is an inspiring prospect."

Mr. Wilson referred to the new tariff law, the new currency law, the new trade commission law and the labor provisions of the new anti-trust law as the means through which "the soil has everywhere been laid bare out of which monopoly is slowly to be eradicated." He added that "undoubtedly the means by which credit has been set free is at the heart of all these things; is the keypiece of the whole structure."

Referring to the timelissness of the currency law, the President said: "The war which has involved the whole of the heart of Europe has made it necessary that the United Sates should mobilize its resources in the most effective way possible." He spoke of the difficulty of marketing the cotton crop of the country, and added that "no doubt in the light of the new day, with its new understandings, the problems of the railroads will also be met and dealt with in a spirit of candor and justice."

The President's letter was in reply to one from Secretary McAdoo announcing the opening of the reserve banks.

FIRST REPORTS OF FEDERAL RESERVE LAW'S OPERATION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—Federal reserve board officials reviewed with sharp interest today reports of first operations of the twelve regional banks in the new currency system. Gold and lawful money amounting to $170,000,000 had been transferred from the member banks to their reserve institutions, and it was estimated that about $170,000,000 remained to be shifted to meet present requirements.

Commercial paper worth only a few millions, was rediscounted by the reserve banks on the first day of their operation, but officials said today they expect a great amount of rediscount business to be transacted in the near future. Emergency currency and clearing house loan certificates outstanding or in the possession of banks are secured by paper which officials think will be subject in most cases to rediscount by the federal banks.

DEFINITE MARKET FOR BAD EGGS IS FOUND IN CHICAGO

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—Federal, state and local officials have begun a campaign in Illinois, the department of agriculture announced today, to stop what it declares was illegal traffic in impure eggs. "From evidence gathered," the department declared, "there seems to be a definite market in Chicago for 'rots and spots' at $2 a case of thirty dozen. In consequence rots and spots from all over the surrounding country have been coming into Chicago in large numbers.

"Although there is a certain demand for inedible egg for technical purposes, such as tanning leather, most of the rots and spots that reach Chicago are first broken and frozen, and then sold to bakers for use in cakes and other forms of food. In one instance, at least, a shipment of these eggs was traced to a firm which admitted that they had no use for them except in food.

"Another important result of the work in Chicago it is hoped will be to persuade other cities and states of the necessity of assisting the federal government in destroying the traffic in bad eggs."

Burning Coal.

The citizens of Newark will be confronted, in fact are now facing a great and real danger, in the natural gas situation, yet far removed from any consideration of the merits of the controversy between the city and the company. This danger arises from the fact that there will be more coal burned in Newark than has been for the past 15 years. Hundreds of home owners have made early arrangement for transferring from natural gas to coal for heating purposes. That is every arrangement except one—the most important of all—of having the chimneys examined and put in shape for the change of fuel.

There are few people who stop to reflect upon the imminence of danger from defective flues, the cause of this condition and its remedy. In the great majority of the homes that a change will be made, the chimneys have been used merely as vents for the gas fumes, and no danger has arisen from burning soot or flames of a hot roaring fire darting through the interstices, and communicating to the partitions of the house, are to dry, inflammable materials stored in attics and upstairs rooms in close proximity to the flues.

The burning of gas for so long has had a tendency in fact has inevitably dried the mortar in the flues which in passing years has fallen from between the bricks, and the chimneys have become veritable fire traps.

Chief Louis Bausch of the fire department, has called attention to this fact and urges every person who contemplates burning coal during the coming winter, to have the chimneys examined and "pointed up" before lighting fires in stoves and furnaces.

The risk is not only to the property in which the fire is situate, but jeopardizes other buildings in the vicinity. The same cause works at the same time at different places, and the menace of simultaneous fires at distant points, making impossible demands upon an inadequate fire-fighting equipment, becomes not only impossible, but probable and imminent. A conflagration might easily occur which would wipe out portions of our city. While the firemen could only be at one place at a time, in others the fire would burn unchecked and its ravages would only be stayed by lack of material upon which to feed.

Every citizen owes it to himself as well as the community to take the precaution suggested, and have all chimneys "pointed up" before lighting coal fires.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

A Sign of Gain.

One of the indications on which optimists can found hopeful views with regard to business, comes from Gary, Ind., observes the Pittsburg Dispatch. A few weeks ago the works there shut down completely. Demand would not keep them running and the United States Steel Corporation found it more economical to turn over the small amount of business that came in to the works in the Pittsburg district, which have been running at 40 to 50 per cent of capacity.

On Monday 6,000 men went to work in Gary. This is understood to be due to an improvement in the domestic demand, contemporaneously with the effect of the foreign demand on Eastern mills. The Gary report says that many jobs from the Pittsburg mills are expected to come here while the Eastern mills are turning out armor plate for the allies." As shipping armor plate to belligerents would be somewhat hazardous, we may conclude that the work in which Eastern mills are engaged is of less warlike character.

An official at Gary is responsible for the assertion that "the bottom has dropped out of the business depression in the United States." That may be an unduly optimistic theory. But this with other favorable indications warrants the opinion that the worst is past and that things are now on the upward turn.

Life insurance men will tell you that Newark is a "poor insurance" town. To be sure, hundreds perhaps thousands of Newark men carry insurance in one form or another, a number having policies running high into the thousands of dollars, but the average man shows a disposition to run when the subject of life insurance is broached. Why? Everybody insures his house and his barn and they may never burn. Why should he not insure his life for the protection of his family when it is a certainty that he will die.

And what about the Community Christmas tree? The Trade's Assembly has planted a tree in the court house park. Surely some organization will arrange for the decoration, the lighting and the music. Everybody enjoyed Newark's Christmas tree last year and the custom then established should not be abandoned.

The Tom Thumb wedding last night was a big success. The same can not be said of all similar functions.

Man and His Wife.

When a man runs a business he figures his expenses. He knows he must pay higher salaries and commissions for better service if he is to make more money.

But when he goes into the business of matrimony he is either recklessly extravagant and fails to apply any business principles at all or he figures all expenses down to the minimum without reckoning on any sort of recompense for the individual who is general manager, chief clerk, buyer, auditor, office boy and sometimes janitor, besides her ordinary duties as wife, mother and housekeeper.

Many a married man who pays his employees well because he believes it good policy and who tips the elevator boy and the porter because he wants better service doesn't stop to reason that it might be good policy to be as square with his wife and that even a wife will smile more brightly and be more willing to perform little extra services for a man who hands out a "tip" to her once in awhile.

There are men who make it a point to study magazine and newspaper articles on "how to cut the cost of living." It is a fact that as many men as women read these theoretical schemes for saving. These same men without knowledge or experience in household management or buying home supplies, proceed to lecture their wives on wastefulness and demand a substantial cut in expenses.

Now, the average housewife is pretty well acquainted with the peculiar conditions of her own family. She knows what she can and cannot do in her own home and neighborhood. She is usually an extremely keen and careful buyer and can extract a great deal more out of $5 than the average man can out of $10. As a savings institution she can't be beaten. She's on the job night and day.

But being a good buyer doesn't bring her any commissions. Working overtime doesn't give her any time and a half pay. Her salary isn't raised because her services are indispensable. Does the "boss" reward her with a bonus at the end of the year? Not so's you could notice it.

What right has a man to figure his household expenses down to the minimum and leave out a commission for the one person upon whom depends the success of the whole thing and who usually performs all the labor connected with it? Some husbands are so watchful that their wives cannot even squeeze out "perquisites," such as small change to be found in trousers pockets when milord sleeps.

There's too much talk about the wastefulness and extravagance of women, too much advice aimed at them. It's all utilized by selfish and stingy husbands to their own advantage.

How many wives, do you suppose, would spend half the contents of the weekly pay envelope playing pool every Saturday night? Many a man spends a dollar a day for cigars and would think it sufficient ground for divorce if his wife paid out 10 cents a day for ice cream sodas.

Some one asks what has become of the old fashioned boy who used to walk three miles to school to get an education? Probably he is sitting on a rock waiting for the transportation wagon to carry him half a mile to the school-house.

Before starting a coal fire where gas has heretofore been used be sure first to inspect the chimney. A little precaution is worth more than a stream from the fire department's hose.

READY FOR BUSINESS

English a Unit.

Without a dissenting vote, the British house of Commons granted Premier Asquith's request for another million soldiers and $1,125,000,000. This indicates the temper of the English people and as a like condition exists in supporting the Kaiser, it is not surprising that nobody can predict the end of the great war that is now raging in Europe.

In characterizing the crisis as the "greatest emergency in which the country ever has been placed" the British prime minister said that at the present time England has 1,200,000 men under arms, that the war is costing England five million dollars a day and that the government proposes to lend Belgium fifty million dollars and Servia four millions without interest until the close of the war.

It only costs $5000 to fire one shot of those big siege guns, but fortunately no one ever dares to ask the European kings how they spend the people's money.

Carp Scheme.

Out in Michigan a weather prophet declares that we are going to have an open winter, because the beavers have not yet stored up in the waters adjacent to their houses their winter supply of twigs of maple, birch and poplar trees—apparently, not considering that this may be only a scheme on the part of the beavers to discourage the demand for beaver muffs.—Boston Globe.

The cigar store board of strategy has decided that as this country is to remain neutral, the name of St. Petersburg, Fla., will have to be changed. Action on London, O., Paris, Ky., and Berlin, Wis., will be taken later.—Zanesville Signal.

Will Be Supported.

With the lesson of the war in Europe before them, the American people will not listen to any counsels of hostility toward Mexico. President Wilson has safely led the country through a crisis that threatened war, and he did so in spite of the fact that there were those who were seeking to bring war about. That was before we had such a demonstration of the actual horrors of war as we have had during the last few months. There may be other crises in regard to Mexico. If there are, the president will have the practically solid support of the country in trying to evade war, no matter how blatant some of his political opponents may be.—Zanesville Signal.

SURE CURES.

Man might his malady endure, with grit, till death shall end it, but that each neighbor has a cure, and comes to recommend it. I have a spavin on my face, and all day long I feel it, and neighbors to my cottage chase, and tell me how to heal it. Says Old Bill Wax, "Relief I bring — just take and rub this salve in, for it will cure up anything from leprosy to spavin." Old Jimpson comes and brings a jug of grease, and makes a plaster, and says, "Just put this on your mug, and you'll avert disaster." To tell me I should steam my head folks seek my lowly dwelling; one says a poultice made of bread will soon reduce the swelling; one has a cake of dark green soap possessing wondrous virtue; one brings a jar of noxious dope, and says, "It will not hurt you." And they regard me angry-eyed, their sympathy is ended, when I admit I haven't tried the cures they recommended. They jump upon me with a wealth of words and call me gudgeon: "You don't deserve the boon of health," they tell me, in their dudgeon. The gods protect us, one and all, when we are sad and ailing, from tender-hearted folks who call with cure-alls unavailing!

END INDIGESTION OR STOMACH PAIN IN FIVE MINUTES

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapepsin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which don't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.

Society

One of the largest weddings ever held in the city was the wedding of the little folks which took place in the Second Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. Every seat was filled and many stood in the rear of the church, to watch the miniature bridal party and guests take their places on the platform erected in the front.

Preceding the ceremony Robert Higgs, impersonating Harry Lauder, sang the famous comedian's Scotch song and in his appealing little voice, most delightfully gave the song in Scotch dialect. Mrs. C. W. Miller, accompanied by Miss Florence King at the organ, sang "Oh Promise Me," and then the bridal march was taken up.

Standard bearers, little girls gowned in white and in groups of two entered the church bearing arched standards, and took their place in the aisles.

Then the ushers, tiny boys in full evening dress, gallantly gave their arms to the little guests, who wore their evening gowns with full length trains, and they were escorted to the pews reserved for them. The guest list included many notables, among whom were President Wilson and his daughter, Governor Cox and his daughter, George and Martha Washington, the bride's aunt, the grandfather and grandmother of the bride, her mother and father, Schuman-Heinke, and a famous reader.

Pages conducted the bridal party, and the tiny bride, gowned in white satin with a full length veil and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies, was most petite and charming. She entered on the arm of the groom, William Prout Woodbridge. The bride was attended by a number of bridesmaids, gowned in pink, and a page carried her train. Two tiny flower girls gowned in white, with sashes of pink tulle, carried the flower baskets, while the ring was carried in a lily by little Miss Harriet Miller.

The church was prettily arranged with palms and ferns and cut flowers, furnished by Kent Brothers, florists, while the decorating was arranged by Meyer & Lindorf.

William Mazey made a most dignified minister and read a most comprehensive wedding service. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held on the platform and the bride and groom were congratulated. The retrocessional march was then held and the wedding feast served in the parlors of the church. The bridal table was arranged in pink, green and white and was centered with the bridal cake, which was festooned with smilax. The table was lighted with pink candles, and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thumb and their bridal party.

The following took part in the wedding:

Bride—Ann Lindsay Wright.
Groom—William Prout Woodbridge.
Best Man—Sanborn Dill.
Maid-of-Honor—Isabel Hatch.
Flower Girls—Elizabeth Hatch and Kathrine Flory.
Ring Bearer—Harriet Miller.

The ladies of the Unity Reading Circle present to the music lovers of Newark Prof. Nellie Odell Rowe, director of the Wooster Conservatory of Music, in a pipe organ recital, at the First Methodist church on Thursday evening, November 19 at 8 p. m.

Prof. Rowe is one of the coming organists of the country. He is a graduate from the Oberlin Conservatory and a post-graduate of the National Conservatory of Paris, France, where he studied under Ch. Marie Widor, Joseph Bonnet and Isador Philipp. He plays with the true insight of an artist.

Prof. Widor, his former teacher, says of him: "He understands thoroughly the grand style of Bach and that of modern music. His organ technique is very pure."

All lovers of good music are cordially invited to be present as guests of the circle. Admission is free and no collection will be taken.

The Investigators club was entertained on Monday, November 16 by Miss Anna Orr in Hudson avenue with the following program:

Roll call—Recent Discoveries in the Scientific World.
The National Geographic Magazine—Mrs. Nevins.
The Technical World—Mrs. Postle.
Reading—Mrs. McClure.
Critic—Mrs. Long.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCracken delightfully surprised them at their new home in Central City with a masquerade party. The evening was spent in music and an old fashioned taffy pulling.

Those present were: Misses Clara Taylor, Vernice Weakley, Ruth Vermilion, Margaret Taylor, Eva Weakley and Hazel Taylor; Messrs. Frank Wolverton, Nola Weakley, Orville Kreager and Frank Cole.

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club are being entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Miller in Hudson avenue.

Mrs. Ella Updegraff has issued invitations for an afternoon card party on Thursday afternoon at her home in South Third street.

The Arachne Sewing club was delightfully entertained on Tuesday evening by Miss Lena Wolfe at her home in North Williams street. This was the occasion for announcing her engagement to Mr. W. R. Counter of Muskegon, Mich. It will be remembered that Mr. Counter was formerly assistant manager in the S. S. Kresge store of this city. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride-elect on November 25.

Dainty refreshments revealed the hidden announcement to the members of the club: Misses Edna Bright, Isabelle Somers, Neva Baumgarten, Esther Kissane, Helen Hall, Celia Bush, Ruth Forry, Irene McMann and Hazel Hall, and guests Misses Zelma Riggs and Clara Bages.

Mrs. R. R. Jakeway delightfully entertained the Ada club at her home in Grant street, Monday evening. The following members and guests were present: Messrs and Mesdames Fred Cummings, William Davis, O. B. Idle, L. A. Rose, Tim Keaton, Mesdames Maggie Williams, Ella Jones, William Ballenger, Harry Fuller, John Walsh, Martha Vernon, Charles Hand, George Lyon, Ada Vernon, Alice Garther, J. T. Purks, Isabella Stewart, Addie Ditter, Mary Gamble, Mary Verner of Cambridge, Miss Mable Lyon, Miss Marie Williams, Mr. Carl Brubaker, Masters Charles Purks, Wilbur Idle, Paul Ditter, Clarence Idle, Gladys Hand.

The evening was spent in games, music and dancing, the music being furnished by Miss Marie Williams and Mr. Carl Brubaker.

Mrs. Gerard Besancceney entertained the members of the Evening Euchre club on Monday evening at her home in West Church street. Dinner was served and the club game afforded entertainment and the souvenirs were awarded to Miss Anne Sheridan, and Miss Marie Hofherr, and the guest trophy was received by Mrs. David Thompson. The guests of the club were Mrs. Walter Daugherty, Mrs. David Thompson and Miss Emma Kammerer.

Had No Desire To Live — Peruna Is A Tonic and Strength Builder So Says

Her letter reads: Mrs. Frank Stroebe, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis. "I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck. Could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live.

"Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life.

"I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement."

Mr. Charles Brown, R. D. 4, Box 79, Rogersville, Tenn. writes: "I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder."

BERT GILL WILL SPEAK TONIGHT AT WOODSIDE CHURCH

Bert Gill of Columbus, the man with the message to men and women, will speak at Woodside Presbyterian church tonight and Thursday evening. Mr. F. E. Kirkpatrick, vice president of the Tabernacle Workers' League, and Jacob Spicer, the German, or as he may say, "the Dutchman," will speak. Mr. Spicer has taught a Sunday school class in the penitentiary for twenty-two years. On Friday evening T. M. De Bruin and George L. Cook, who was with the Columbus Dispatch for thirty years, will speak. Public cordially welcomed, especially boys and men.

Appropos of egg which are and are not fresh, one has been found in the tomb of an Egyptian child named Sextius Rufus, who lived about 1,800 years ago.

DON'T WASH YOUR HAIR WITH SOAP.

When you wash your hair don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure an dentirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Dressmaking on the Boulevards.

This picture of life in the French capital is given in Frankfort Sommerville's "In the Spirit of Paris:"

An industrious woman at a newspaper kiosk sat making a jacket in the intervals between customers. A sleepy cubby, with a cigarette in his mouth, watched her at her work. Presently she put on the coat and began to fit it and fix it with pins. She was examining the sides to see how they hung.

She stooped to plant a pin. But the cabman strode up, bent and fixed it for her, with a "Voila, madam," turned to the other side, measured the distance with his eye and inserted another pin, traveled thus round the garment, doubled a clumsy pleat, mumbled "It's too big here," at which she nodded, and then stood back to see the effect.

"Merci, monsieur," she said, took off the jacket and sat down. A "fare" came up; the cabman jumped to his seat, cracked his whip and was off.

Gents in Vienna.

He was known twenty years ago as a "gigerl," and young men who were ambitious in regard to correct dress studied him closely," says the Vienna Press. "In other countries his name was variously 'fop,' 'dandy' or 'dude,' but in Vienna he had an added touch of dash, and that made him a 'gigerl.' Today the son of the fashion wise man of those days, who, like his father, knows how to wear his clothes and appreciates the superiority of the man whose necktie and socks are in harmony as to color, whose dress is correct, no matter what the occasion may be—promenade, funeral, race, opera, business or golf—is known as a 'gent,' derived from the English word 'gentleman.'" A member of the American colony at Vienna, commenting on the "gent" article, says, "We try to explain to our neighbors that 'gent' is only four-fifths of what they think the abbreviation stands for."

Microscope and Building Stone.

Especially valuable are the comparative microscopic studies of rock used in building which has resisted weathering for a long time and that which is in process of disintegration. The cause of rapid weathering can be recognized as a natural structural relation. Two granites, for instance, of almost identical mineralogical and chemical composition can behave quite differently. The one remains sound for years; the other disintegrates rapidly because delicate microscopic pressure zones run through it. Two marbles of equal beauty show entirely different powers of resistance as material for a work of art exposed to the weather, according to whether the calcite individuals in thin section interlock with sinuous outlines or merely adjoin each other as paving stones.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

England and the Maximum Wage.

England knew the maximum wage long before the minimum was thought of. It came about after the plague of 1348 had swept away half the population. Work was at a standstill for want of workers and wages went up so enormously that the state thought it necessary to fix a limit. The state ordered that the laborer should not merely accept gratefully what was offered him, but that he must not leave his parish in search of another master on pain of having the letter "F" (for fugitive) branded upon his forehead. Statutes of this kind were popular up to Queen Elizabeth's time, when the last of the series was passed "in the hope that it should banish idleness, advance husbandry and yield unto the hired person, both in the time of scarcity and in the time of plenty, a convenient proportion of wages."

Red Light and Photographs.

Why have we to develop photographs in a red light? We know that white light is really a mixture of light of all sorts of colors—red, yellow, green, blue and so on. Some of these lights of various colors have one kind of power and some another. Now, the kind of light that has the power of causing chemical changes, which is the light we photograph by, is mainly violet light. We can see in a way by red light, but red light has practically no influence on photographic plates. We may say that photographic plates cannot see red light, and so we can use red light to develop them by without fearing that the photograph of our faces or the walls of the room will be printed on the plates.

The Epitaph of Mary Lyon.

In the grounds of Mount Holyoke seminary, overlooking the beautiful valley through which the Connecticut flows seaward, is a monument to Mary Lyon, the Massachusetts teacher who founded the college. On it is inscribed a sentence of her own, "There is nothing in the universe that I am afraid of but that I shall not know and do all my duty."

Wonders of Henry VIII.

"Henry VIII. was king of England and the greatest wife lover that ever was," states a boy's essay quoted in the London Lancet. He was born at a place called Anne Bomino, and he had 350 wives. The first was beheaded and then executed, the second was revoked, and the third died, and then he married Ann Bullen."

"You are a fraud," you said yesterday that you had seven starving children, and today you say you have nine."

"Both stories are true, sir."

"How do you make that out?"

PROGRAM

OF LECTURE—RECITALS TO BE GIVEN IN GRANVILLE BY PROF. CARL ESCHMANN.

Wedding to Take Place in Near Future of One of Granville's Young Women.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., Nov. 18.—Announcement has been made of a series of lecture-recitals to be given by Prof. Eschmann in addition to the regular conservatory faculty recitals. There will be five in this series and they will cover a somewhat extended period beginning at the point reached in the series last year. They are varied in character and will be made as interesting as possible by lantern slides and musical illustrations. Mr. Eschmann will be assisted by members of the conservatory faculty, the glee club, the Denison orchestra of thirty-two members and by Prof. Hoppe of the Department of Public Speaking. Special attention might be called to the number in which Mr. Eschmann will give some musical reminiscences of a visit to Waniar. The date and outline of the course follows:

November 18, (this evening in Recital Hall) Beethoven, the Immortal.

December 10, Christmas Carols,—Glee Clubs.

January 20, Mozart and the Concerto—The Denison Orchestra and Miss Brown.

February 17. A Little Journey to the Home of Liszt, Debussy, the Impressionist. His opera "Pelleas and Melisaude," given a reading by Profs. Hoppe and Eschmann.

Several automobile loads of Granville music lovers went to Columbus last night to attend the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra concert in Memorial Hall. They made the trip in comfort despite the cold, and are enthusiastic over Kunwald the director. Thalberg the pianist and the program of the great orchestra. Among those who motored, (there were many who went by train) were: Mrs. R. S. Colwell, Miss Colwell, Miss LaFerre, Miss Clara Wright, Mr. Herbert Wright, Miss Ferrar, Miss Leila Brown, Miss Rockwood, C. S. Rockwood, Miss Eva Wright Miss Rachel Kendall, Miss Ruth Hopkins, Miss Laura Harris, and several young women from Shepardson college.

There is to be a wedding of another of Granville's fair daughters next week, which will be quietly celebrated at the family residence on Broadway. Official announcement will be made in due time.

Mrs. Theodore Johnson has as house guest, Miss Helen Harvey of Sherman, Texas, who has been the recipient of many social attentions. She was guest of honor at a dinner given at the Kappa Phi house last evening at half past six o'clock. Those present were: Prof. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Miss Harvey, Miss Edith Shreves, Miss Judith Nichols and Messrs Victor Hoppe, George Lyon of Huntington, W. Va., and Harold Shreves of Union City, Pa. Today Miss Harvey was honor guest at luncheon at the Phi Gamma Delta chapter house.

Mr. and Mrs. Harries Owen of Columbus who have spent the past fortnight with their respective families Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen of Burg street and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pence of North street, returned home today.

Mrs. Belle Wright is spending a few days with friends in Columbus, Ohio.

Obituary

Perry Crumrine.

Perry Crumrine, who less than a year ago removed from Bladensburg to Delaware, O., died Monday evening in Delaware of tuberculosis, at the age of about 48 years. He was popular and very highly respected in Bladensburg. His wife and several children survive.

The body was taken to the home of Vincent Harris, in Bladensburg, Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services were in Bladensburg Wednesday at 10 a. m.

Gerhardt Klausen was recently sentenced at Barmen, Prussia, on three separate counts to terms of imprisonment totaling 175 years.

It has been estimated that every square mile of the ocean is inhabited by 120,000,000 living beings.

Lodgepole pine seed sown broadcast on the snow in southern Idaho last spring germinated when the snow melted, and as many as 60 little trees were counted to the square foot.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BREVITIES

Bicycle Stolen.

Walter Baker, employed at the Western Union office, reported the theft of his bicycle Tuesday night from the rear of the office in the Arcade.

Stole Rabbits.

Five pet rabbits belonging to Webster Bieberbach, living in South Fifth street, were stolen from the pens in the rear of the house on Tuesday evening.

Whatsoever Circle.

The Whatsoever Circle of The King's Daughters will hold a meeting in the Circle's rooms, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Postpone Church Meeting.

Owing to the quarantine placed on the Baptist church at Hog Run, there will be no meeting at that church, Saturday and Sunday, November 21st and 22nd.

For Non-Support.

On a warrant issued at London, O., Henry McClain was arrested Tuesday afternoon at the Woolworth store on a charge of non-support. Officers Hurbaugh and Gorman made the arrest. An officer from London arrived this morning to take charge of the prisoner.

Drunks Are Locked Up.

Five drunks and one man slated "safe keeping" were arrested Tuesday afternoon and evening. They will be arraigned before Mayor Bigbee Friday morning. The mayor is on a trip to Virginia. He will return Thursday night in company with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cecil Bigbee.

Great Eaters, Great Breakfasts.

Looking over the aged pages of Morris Berbeck's "Journey in America," which extended through Ohio, we found this account of a breakfast at Rushville (June 16, 1817), in Fairfield county:

"A gentleman, myself and three children sat down this morning to a repast consisting of the following articles: Coffee, rolls, biscuit, dry toast, waffles (a soft, hot cake of German extraction covered with butter), pickered salted (a fish from Lake Huron), veal cutlets, broiled ham, gooseberry pie, stewed currants, preserved cranberries, butter and cheese. For all this for myself and three children and four gallons of oats and hay for four horses we were charged (a 9d. for about $1.65)."

There were great eaters in those days, and from this record they got plenty to eat.—Ohio State Journal.

The Pelican and Its Pouch.

Among the curiosities of nature must be reckoned the pouch of the pelican, which serves equally well as a net with which to scoop up fish and as a bag to convey food to its young. When not in use the bird can contract its pouch so that it is barely discernible, but when it is fully distended it will hold two gallons of water. When the pelican is hunting for food it flies slowly about twenty feet above the surface of the water, scanning its depths for any sign of its prey. As soon as a fish is seen there is a sudden folding of a pair of wings, a downward plunge with the speed of an arrow head first into the sea, the unerring marksman reappearing in a moment and floating on the waves long enough to reveal a glimpse of a fish gliding down its capacious gullet and to shake the water from its disheveled plumage.

Utah has six mountains which rise to more than 13,000 feet above sea level.

The Courts

Justice Scott's Court.

Clarence Thompson had filed an affidavit against Earl Baker of Alexandria, charging him with grand larceny. The affidavit was served Wednesday and the hearing will probably occur Thursday.

John Sell has been arrested on the affidavit of Edwin Green, charged with horse stealing. The suit grows out of a horse trade in which Green alleges that he traded a team to Sell and the latter gave him a horse and $30 to "boot." One of the horses became incapacitated, so Sell alleges, and he demanded that the trade be declared off. Upon Green's refusal, it is alleged, Sell made the "trade-back" himself.

Will Appeal From Verdict.

Mrs. Jane Parks, who was awarded a verdict of $75 in common pleas court, Tuesday, by the jury for an assault and battery, committed by Joseph Walton, will carry the case to a higher court. Mrs. Parks was assaulted with a hoe and is not satisfied with the damages awarded her by the common pleas court jury.

Chicago Grain.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Higher cables had a strengthening effect today on wheat. The wet harvest in Argentina counted against the bears and so also did signs that exporters were seeking shipments on an all-rail basis from here to the seaboard. Besides, the northwest was predicting smaller receipts and there were Kansas complaints of dry weather. After opening ¼ to ½@⅝ up the market steadied slightly above last night's level.

Clear cold weather that favored the handling of the new crop made the corn market easy. Strength of wheat though, tended to uphold prices. The opening which varied from unchanged figures to ⅛@¼ higher, was followed by something of a sag all around.

Traders in oats seemed disposed to watch other grain. There was but little pressure to sell, and the market kept relatively firm.

Lower prices for hogs carried down provisions. Many commission houses took to the bear side.

OUTBREAK

OF FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE IN NEW DISTRICTS TIGHTENS QUARANTINE.

No Section of the State Can Now be Considered Free From Contagion.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Nov. 18.—Outbreak of foot and mouth disease among cattle in three new localities, Preble, Champaign and Mahoning counties, was influence today in drawing tighter the quarantine order imposed on the state by the agricultural commission. Urgent requests by cattle raisers and bankers in several parts of the state were considered by officials in charge of fighting the animal disease, but the announcement was made that "to repeal the prohibition on movement of live stock within the state, except in special cases would be too dangerous to consider."

Dr. Marion Imes, federal inspector in charge of the work in Ohio, A. P. Sandles, president of the agricultural commission and Dr. Paul Fischer, chief veterinarian, held an extended consultation today. They perfected plans for organizing the five districts into which the state has been divided for the foot and mouth campaign. Through authorities of these districts orders will be issued specific permits to move certain herds of cattle to slaughtering places.

Dr. Fischer explained that the outbreak of the disease in counties not heretofore suspected shows that no section of the state can be considered free of danger. Many veterinarians with private practice, who came to Columbus to inquire when the quarantine will be lifted were sent home with word that this cannot be thought of at present.

Headquarters for the five districts into which the state has been divided for managing the campaign against foot and mouth disease are:

Akron for the northeast quarter; Toledo for the extreme northwest section; Lima for the southern part of the northwest quarter; Dayton for the southwest quarter; Newark for the southeast quarter. Shipping permits will be issued from these headquarters, not from state headquarters here.

YOUNG MAN HELD FOR BELMONT CO. POLICE OFFICIALS

James McFeeley, arrested by Officer Richter on a message received from officers at Alledonia, Belmont County, was taken back to that town Wednesday morning, where he will answer to a charge of appropriating money amounting to $20 and property worth $12, according to the warrant brought by the officer.

It is charged that McFeeley worked for a man at Alledonia and that the money and property were taken from his employer. McFeeley declares that the money was due him for labor and that it and the property, a revolver worth $10 and an electric flash light were given him by the man's wife. It is also claimed that the husband charges young McFeeley with being friendly with his wife.

Church of Christ Meetings Continue; Increased Interest

The meetings at the Central Church of Christ are increasing in interest and attendance. Tuesday night Rev. Ward preached a strong and convincing sermon on the divinity of Christ.

The song service is most inspiring. The chorus selections, accompanied by the orchestra were well received. The Sunbeams sing each evening to the delight of all.

The special music Tuesday night was somewhat unique. A male quartet was expected to sing and in the absence of one of its members Miss Hughes took the baritone. The number used was "The Way-side Cross" and it was received with enthusiasm. The quartette, Dr. C. B. Keller, Ernest Cochran, A. B. Painter and Miss Hughes have promised to give another selection this week.

The subject of the sermon for Wednesday night is "The Blood of Christ."

The services begin at 7:30. Everybody cordially invited.

Lack of Information

A great majority of the troubles of modern business may be traced to lack of information. The difficulties and misunderstandings between capital and labor are largely due to a lack of knowledge on the part of both sides. The question of whether wages have increased in proportion to the increased cost of living can be answered by most of the business men of this city who are accustomed to read our Monthly Reports on basic conditions. We believe every business man of this city should read these Reports.

NOSE CLOGGED UP FROM COLD OR CATARRH OPENED AT ONCE

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith — just once — in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

W.A. Ashbrook Will Probably Be Chairman

OF IMPORTANT COMMITTEE IN NEXT CONGRESS AS HE IS THE RANKING MEMBER.

Change In Personnel of Many Committees Necessitated by Recent Election.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 18.—Effects of the recent election on the personnel of congressional committees was shown today in an unofficial list naming members who will not be in the sixty-fourth congress. Several of the committees lost some of their most active members through defeat at the polls. Of the Democrats on the committee of expenditures in the postoffice department, none remains.

Committee Chairmen who will not appear in the next congress include: Post, Ohio, elections committee No. 1.

Chairmanship vacancies were created by elevation to the Senate of Representative Underwood, of the Ways and Means committee; Broussard, Louisiana, expenditures of the department of justice, and Hardwick, Georgia coinage, weights and measures.

Of the 14 democrats on the ways and means committee, six will not return to congress, including chairman Underwood Hammond, Minnesota, who lost in a gubernatorial contest; Palmer, Pennsylvania and Stanley, Kentucky, defeated in Senatorial races, and Mitchell, Massachusetts. One-third of the 21 members of the appropriation committee will be missing in the next congress, one-fourth of the judiciary, one-third of the banking and currency, including all four members ranking next to the chairman, while the foreign affairs, Indian, interstate commerce, military and public lands committees all lose one-third of their membership. Some of the smaller committees lost one-half.

On the committees whose chairmen were defeated for re-election or who go to the Senate, includes names as ranking Democrats for the next congress as follows:

Ways and means, Claude Kitchin, North Corolina: Coinage, weights and measures, William A. Ashbrook, Ohio.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food

When the stomach fails to digest and distribute that which is eaten, the bowels become clogged with a mass of waste and refuse that ferments and generates poisons that are gradually forced into the blood, causing distress and often serious illness.

Most people naturally object to the drastic cathartic and purgative agents that shock the system. A mild, gentle laxative, positive in its effect that will quickly relieve constipation is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Pepsin, sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. It does not gripe or cramp, but acts easily and pleasantly and is therefor the most saeisfactory remedy for children, women and elderly persons. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a wellknown authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

GREAT REVIVAL BY REV. LEE STARKE MOST SUCCESSFUL

The East Main Street Methodist church is in the midst of one of the greatest revivals ever held in East Newark. Evangelist Lee Starke of New York, a former newspaper man is doing the preaching, and the large crowds in attendance at each service attest their appreciation of his eloquent sermons. Mr. Starke is a master of the invective and his denunciations of sin are scathing and many times terrific. It has been said that one of the secrets of Mr. Starke's success is, that one day he thunders judgment and the next day he preaches in the tenderest manner the love of God. His talk last night was in demonstration of this. He took for his subject, "Keep Sweet" and no one could imagine that this was the same preacher who had been hammering the preachers and the people with such force for the past week.

The evangelist has agreed to give two special talks to men only before his engagement in Newark closes.

The singing, under the direction of Mrs. Hulshizer is one of the most enjoyable features of the services.

Operations On Eastern Front Favor Germans

ACCORDING TO AN OFFICIAL WAR BULLETIN ISSUED IN BERLIN.

Importance Pointed Out of an Early Advance Against Main Russian army.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Nov. 18.—Via The Hague and London—An official war bulletin given out in Berlin today sets forth that the operations on the eastern frontier are progressing favorably. The Germans apparently are using their victory at Wloclawek to the greatest advantage. The Russian armies defeated near Lepno are today probably in the vicinity of Plock, and the forces defeated near Wloclawek are now near Kutno and Leschytea.

For the continuation of operations the bulletin goes on to say, it will be of the greatest importance for the German troops from the region of Soldau to make further progress against the right wing of the main Russian army. If the Russians intend to retire behind the Vistula such a retreat, considering the extremely bad conditions of the roads, would be most difficult; consequently the Russians probably will prefer to make a definite stand when the German and Austrian forces attack.

The papers of Berlin declare again today that the fall of Belgrade, Servia, is imminent.

According to a statement given out in Vienna, the fortress of Przemysl, now being besieged by the Russians, is provisioned for 12 months.

WELSH HILLS.

Mr. W. M. Osborn of Newark spent a few days last week at the home of his son, Oscar Osborn.

Miss Frances Haskins of Granville accompanied her father to church here Sunday morning.

Mr. Reuben Miller and Miss Gertrude Griffith were entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis.

An organ has been purchased for the church and was brought from Newark Monday. We feel sure this will mean a renewed interest in the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans, William Evans and nephew Donald Jones, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis.

Mrs. Walter Packham, who has been on the sick list, is better at this writing.

Miss Zoe Barnthous of Upper Sandusky, one of the Institute workers of Sunday school and young peoples' work, expects to be here on Sunday, November 29 and give addresses both morning and evening. Miss Barnthouse made many friends when she was here in September and as many as can should hear her when she comes again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Williams called to see Mr. J. M. Cada Sunday afternoon. Mr. Cada has been in poor health for the past two months, but is slowly improving.

THE BUTLER FURNACE
Solves The Gas Problem

It will burn slack coal as well as other furnaces burn the best.

What are you now spending for coal, coke, slack, wood or gas?

Whatever the sum is, you can cut it in half with a Butler Furnace. THE BUTLER EMITS NO SMOKE—IT BURNS IT. Every cubic inch of smoke that comes from your chimney represents just so much wasted heat energy that you pay for in your fuel bills. Every pound of soot that lodges in your pipes, every shoveful of ashes taken from the clean-out is a total loss. The Butler turns this waste into Power. You are now paying for a Butler Furnace by not having one—in the fuel you waste.

The first cost is the only cost of a Butler. There are no fire bowls to crack. No repairs. An extra amount of radiating surface.

The Butler Furnace will last a lifetime. It's the one furnace you want.

We give prompt and careful attention to all inquiries.

CASUALTIES OF GERMANS VERY HEAVY

LIST JUST ISSUED CONTAINS THE NAMES OF TWO COMMANDING GENERALS.

Capital of Krupp Gun Works Increased Many Millions, and Big Dividends Declared.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, via The Hague and London, Nov. 18.—German casualty lists just issued record the deaths of two generals and the wounding of another. General Alfred von Vrielen was killed on November 12, and General von Lepel is the other commanding officer reported killed on the field of battle General von Lepel was in command of the reserve infantry division; General Strenger commander of the Fifty-third German infantry brigade, is listed as having been severely wounded

The Tageblatt's Poland correspondent relates the details of the capture of Governor von Korff of Warsaw, Monday morning. It appears from his account that the governor with his adjutant, approached Kutno in an automobile, not knowing that the city had already been taken by the Germans after bloody street fighting. Suddenly the governor found himself before the vanguard of German cavalry and tried to escape, but was overtaken by the Metz dragoons and surrendered without resistence. He was brought to Gnesen Monday night and confined in the best hotel there.

The American Red Cross division at Gleiwitz, in Prussian Silesia, near the Russian border, expects shortly to be moved to a more northerly [illegible]

The capital of the Krupp company, which manufactures Germany's big guns and other war material, is to be increased from 70,000,000 to 250,000,000 marks, according to the proposals of the directors which were submitted to a general meeting of the company at Essen on November 12. The increase is justified, it was stated, by the demands of war and by earlier enlargements of the works, purchases of coal fields and so-forth, which locked up considerable capital. The new stock issue will as usual be taken up by the Krupp family. A part of the new capital will be paid in on December 31.

The directors also proposed a dividend of 12 per cent as against the 14 ~~declared in~~ the previous year. The directors also signed 3,000,000 marks toward the relief of the families of soldier employes, 2,000,000 to the employes furlough fund, and 1,000,000 to the pension fund.

HOFF'S LINIMENT RELIEVES PAIN INSTANTLY

The greatest enemy of pain is Hoff's German Liniment. And more than 18 years' use in thousands of homes has proved it. The next time you are bothered with Rheumatism, Aching Joints and Muscles, ask your druggist for a bottle of Hoff's German Liniment and rub the aching parts and pain quickly disappears. This famous stainless, greaseless, refreshing-odor preparation is as pure and white as snow. It won't soil the finest clothes.

Hoff's German Liniment is an unequaled remedy for Rheumatism, Lame Back, Neuralgia, Sore Throat, Cold on the Lungs, Cold in the Head, Bruises, Sprains, Aching Joints, Sore Feet, Corns, Bunions, etc. Taken internally it quickly cures Colds, Coughs, Croup, etc. It is powerful and penetrating. Fine for children. Nothing like it in existence for stopping pain. It is a pure white emulsion of camphor cream with other pure, harmless, effective ingredients. Hoff's Liniment does not leave pores open like camphorated oil alone.

Sold in handy bottles by all druggists—a quarter pint for a quarter; large family size, 50c. Results absolutely guaranteed, or druggist will return your money without argument. Accept no substitute.

PAIN IN THE BACK

Do not worry about a pain in your back. The worry will do you more harm than the pain. The serious diseases of the kidneys seldom or never produce such pains while the cause of most backache is muscular rheumatism, which is painful but never fatal. Lumbago is a form of muscular rheumatism, so is stiff neck.

Sufferers from any form of muscular rheumatism affecting the joints, should keep the general health at the highest standard by the use of a non-alcoholic tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and eat good nourishing food without too much meat. Proper nutrition and good blood are the best means of fighting rheumatism. Medicines do not control the disease directly but a well nourished system will often throw it off. Rheumatism quickly thins the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and as they build it up and strengthen the system there is an increased resistance to the rheumatic poisons. In this way many rheumatic sufferers have found complete recovery.

Man Murdered, Body Stuffed Into a Barrel

New York Police Believe Dead Man Was a Victim of Gunmen's Feud.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Nov. 18.—The man who was murdered last night and stuffed into a barrel, carried to a lonely street under the Queensborough Bridge and left there, to be found before the warmth had left his body, was identified today He was Luigi Macaluzo, aged 22, a tailor, who lived in that section of Manhattan's East Side, best known to the police as the home of gangsters and gunmen. He himself had served a sentence for carrying a pistol and detectives seeking to unravel the mystery of his death, thought it due to a feud between rival gunmen.

A prescription written on the blank of an East Side druggist furnished the police their only clew to the identity of the dead man. A bullet wound in the heart indicated that a murder had been committed and the police are convinced that they are confronted with a mystery similar to the famous East Side barrel murder of some years ago, which followed a quarrel between members of a secret organization.

Two men unloaded the barrel from a truck and rolled it to the sidewalk and stood it on end. Then they leaped back on their truck and whipped their horses and dashed away.

A woman who had seen the actions of the men, went to the barrel and looked in. She saw the body of a man which had been crumpled and stuffed into the barrel.

The woman called a policeman and then made off, horrified by her find.

VILLA

IS DECLARED GREATER ENEMY TO MEXICAN DEMOCRACY THAN WAS HUERTA.

General Gonzales Places Blame Upon Him of a Necessary Resumption of Hostilities.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Mexico, City, Nov. 18.—General Obregon who yesterday assumed command of the capital and of the federal district, last night received a telegram from General Pablo Gonzales in which the latter declared that General Villa by advancing his troops southward had repeatedly broken the truce agreement entered into on November 12 between General Gonzales and General Gutierrez who was recently chosen provisional president by the Aguas Calientes convention. General Gonzales concluded his message with the following:

"For my part I believe that I have complied with my duties as a soldier and a citizen. I have tried to avoid the shedding of blood which the enemy appears thirsty for, and the war which we are obliged to prosecute with all vigor forthwith, is justified by the unworthy conduct of our opponents."

A large body of troops belonging to General Obregon's division arrived here last night from Irapuato, 29 miles southwest of Guanajuato.

General Alvaredo, post commander, has issued a statement in which he declares that General Villa is a greater enemy to the cause of Mexican Democracy than was general Huerta. He says that Villa has forced an unnecessary civil war on Mexico.

It is reported here that General Carranza will move his capital to Vera Cruz immediately upon evacuation of that city by the Americans.

Smoke tobacco, not tabasco!

You listen to this:

There isn't anything the matter with your smokappetite. You try Prince Albert in a jimmy pipe or rolling a few makin's cigarettes before you do the next thing. And you'll wise up to what the doctor ordered! For P. A. in a cigarette or a pipe is a wonder—so bully in flavor and fragrance. And it's easy to roll, because it "stays put."

Unlike any other tobacco, Prince Albert can't bite your tongue and can't parch your throat. That's cut out by a patented process. No other tobacco can be made like the national joy smoke

Everywhere you travel throughout the nation you'll find more men smoking pipes than ever before. Since P. A. hit the turf, less than five years ago, three men now smoke a pipe where one smoked before. What's the answer?

Just you get your tidy red tin, fire up a few loads of "the national joy smoke," and you'll wise up so quickly you'll think you've been napping for the last few years. And that's no idle dream!

Now do that little thing and get going in the right direction!

Just buy P. A. like you never had smoked any other brand. The dealer's wise. Say "P. A. for mine." In the toppy red bags 5c; tidy red tins 10c; also in handsome pound and half-pound humidors. You'll get acquainted right well on the second fire-up. On?

Only Fair For Faither.
In a train the other day, says a Glasgow News correspondent, I overheard two schoolteachers dwell with a certain fondness on the pranks of a boy whom they called Jimmie. I could gather that this lad was full of sweet simplicity and a deep rooted objection to education Despite his dilatoriness, however, he was a general favorite.

One of the dominies in whose class Jimmie now idles his time remarked that on a recent morning the boy had handed in an exercise in arithmetic which, by its neatness and freedom from errors, simply howled "Father." Jimmie was in a simmer of excitement to see what mark he would get.

In order to surprise him into saying something the teacher had scribbled on the copybook "Fair" instead of "Excellent," as it should have been. A murmur of dismay was expected from the boy, but instead he chuckled with glee and remarked: "Oh, I'm glad! Faither's only got 'fair' efter a' his bouncin'!"

London's Ugly Man.
Frank Duff in his reminiscences tells a story of an exceptionally ugly man, well known in London society, whose name he suppresses. He had it from Lord Lytton, who had it from Lord Beaconsfield.

"I saw him once," said Beaconsfield. "It was when we were living at Grosvenor Gate. When his card was brought up I was extremely busy, and I said to Lady Beaconsfield, 'My dear, you must receive this gentleman for me.' I ought to tell you that Lady Beaconsfield was very fond of seeing remarkable people, and I said to her, 'My dear, I know he is a remarkable man; I cannot tell you for what reason he is remarkable, but you may take it from me that he is remarkable.' Lady Beaconsfield tripped downstairs, and I was turning to my work when I heard a fall and a scream. I rushed down; Lady Beaconsfield had fainted. She thought she had seen Mokanna, the veiled prophet, without his veil!"

Methodist Stamps.
Senator X.'s daughter, who is beautiful, religious and unsophisticated, went into a Washington drug store recently to purchase some stamps.

"Ten cents' worth of stamps, please," she said timidly.

The drug clerk, who had an eye for feminine beauty, was struck with her appearance, so he gave her an engaging smile and urbanely asked:

"What denomination?"

Disconcerted by his open admiration, she looked at him in astonishment, then, remembering the Scriptural injunction to be "prepared to give a reason for the faith that is within you," she replied, "Methodist." There was a moment's pause; then her face became suffused with angry blushes, and she continued, "But I do not see what that has to do with my stamps."—Lippincott's.

Story of the Vote in Fiji.
The Indian merchants in Fiji in municipal elections vote solid for the wealthy storekeeper and landowner, who, says Ralf Stock in "Confessions of a Tenderfoot," represent vested interests and owe them money.

On one occasion that is fresh in the mind of every one in Suva, these Indian merchants were rounded up and driven to the polls like sheep, well primed beforehand to vote for—we shall say Johnson and Jacobson. These instructions had been so impressed upon them that their vocabulary for days consisted of nothing but "Johnson and Jacobson." "Move up there," said the clerk of a polling booth on the great day to a line of apprehensive Indians. "D'your hear? Move up!" "Johnson and Jacobson," answered the latter as one man.

Treat Children's Colds Externally

Don't dose delicate little stomachs with harmful internal medicines. Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve is applied externally over the throat and chest. The body heat releases soothing antiseptic vapors that are inhaled all night long, loosening the tough phlegm and opening up the air passages. For all inflammation of the air passages from head colds and catarrh, down to bronchitis and incipient pneumonia, Vick's is quicker than internal medicines. Can be used freely with perfect safety on the smallest child. At druggists—25c, 50c, and $1.00.

VICK'S Croup and Pneumonia SALVE

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ARNETT ROSE

Allen County Boy Is Champion Corn Grower of Buckeye State.

MIXED BRAIN AND BRAWN

Ohio's Champion Corn Grower Set Good Pattern For Elders.

This seventeen-year-old boy, by mixing a little brain with brawn, raised 153 bushels and 47 pounds of shelled corn on one acre. On the day that he husked his corn it had a market value of $96.92 for shipping purposes. Fed to stock upon the farm at the price of meat prevailing on that date its value was $145.38. It cost Arnett Rose $36.70 to produce that acre, allowing for labor, land rental and every expense properly chargeable against it. One hundred and eight dollars and sixty-eight cents is a conservative estimate of the net profit of that acre. Ohio's average net profit per acre is $7.22. Arnett Rose's yield figures a gain of $101.46 per acre over the average net profit. Ohio is devoting 4,000,000 acres to corn each year. If the farmers of Ohio were to accomplish what this boy of seventeen accomplished, it would mean a gain of $405,840,000 each year. In five years this would double the business of every bank in Ohio.

This Might Be American.
What are known in these parts as "the beautifiers" were to arrive in the morning, says a correspondent in the Manchester Guardian. The house had already been got into a state of intense discomfort. The head of the household, after arguing heatedly with the landlord to induce him to do the house through, now bewailed inwardly his too complete success. However, it had to be faced, and the next question was, Would the painters come to time? At daylight the next morning there was a thunderous knocking at the door. The head of the house rejoiced, for he knew that now in a week his home would be habitable again. He heard the servant go down and open the door. A minute later there came a tap at the bedroom door.

"If you please sir, it's the foreman painter."

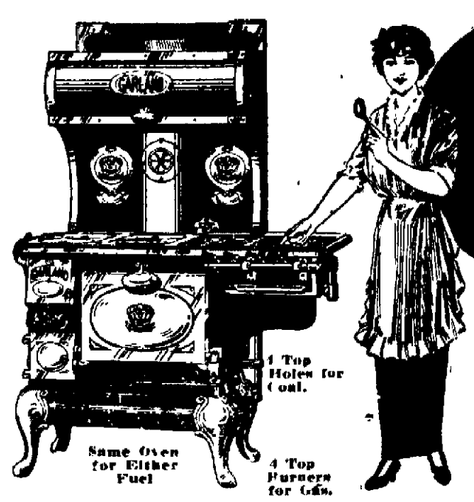

"Well, he knows what to do. Tell him to start on any of the downstairs rooms."

"He's called sir, sir, that you can rely on him starting Monday next certain."

WHO PAYS YOUR DEBTS.

By Rev. John Christie at the First Presbyterian Church Tonight.

The special services at the First Presbyterian church are developing the "Revival" spirit, as was clearly proven by the attendance and interest in the meeting last night. Rev. Christie preached a powerful sermon on the theme "Christ's Invitation," basing his remarks on the words of Christ "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." The attendance was double that of Monday night and the deep spiritual interest manifested in the sermon, and during the consecration service, gives assurance that the meetings will continue to grow in number, interest and power. Fellow members, you cannot afford to miss such gospel sermons as we heard last night, and will have the privilege of hearing during the balance of this week. See that your neighbors are invited to these meetings, providing they do not worship elsewhere.

Tonight Rev. Christie will preach on the theme "The Forgiveness of Sins." Mrs. Tucker will sing "Life's Railway to Heaven." The chorus choir, assisted by a large volunteer choir and the junior choir will give a song service beginning promptly at 7:15.

The Use of Bisurated Magnesia For Stomach Troubles

In these days of almost universal indigestion, dyspepsia and other stomach trouble, the recent announcement by a [illegible] specialist that pure bisurated magnesia is an almost infallible remedy for nearly all forms of stomach trouble, will come as a welcome surprise to all sufferers. A teaspoonful in a little water immediately after eating, or whenever pain is felt, neutralizes the excess acid and instantly stops the fermentation and pain. Those who use bisurated magnesia [illegible] for a week or two usually [illegible] entirely disappeared and normal digestion is completely restored.—Advertisement.

COURAGE IN WAR.

What war teaches—as well as business life.

Courage in war or business is born of good pure blood. Pure blood is the greatest blessing mankind can have.

Millions of people need this powerful vegetable remedy that puts the stomach, liver and bowels in fine condition; that clears the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves stronger and steadier and gives to pale, weak, rundown people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discoverery, free from alcohol or narcotics, does just what is stated above, simply because it banishes from the blood all poison and impure matter. It is the world's great Blood Purifier; so wonderfully penetrating that it even enters joints, dissolves the impure deposits and carries them out, as it does all impurities, through the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin.

If you have indigestion, sluggish liver, backache over the kidneys, nasal or other Catarrh, unsteady nerves or unsightly skin, get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery today and start at once to replace your impure blood with the kind that puts energy and ambition into you and brings back youth and vigorous action.

DON'T BE THIN.

No Need of Being Scrawny, Weak and Emaciated.

In these days of physical culture and health foods, one would hardly expect to see any thin, weak, emaciated people, but in spite of all this nearly every person you meet is thin and scrawny.

Good healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of the proper food, with thorough assimilation of the fat giving elements. Nine people out of ten in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Samose, the great flesh-forming food. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets, and see how your weight increases.

Samose has valuable flesh-forming and tissue building properties, and when it is assimilated with the food, it causes the flesh-making elements to be retained and the weight is naturally increased.

W. A. Erman & Son, the popular druggists, have sold in the last few weeks a great many packages of Samose, every one with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it did not give satisfaction, and have had but one person ask for the money back.

HER EYE TROUBLES ARE BETTER ALSO

Nerv-Worth Confers Astonishing Benefits on Resident of Mayflower Flats.

"I have been taking doctors' medicines and different patent medicines for sometime, but none have done the good that Nerv-Worth has done. Before using Nerv-Worth I was troubled with indigestion and dizziness, which caused my nerve troubles. My eyes also were affected from that trouble. After seeing Nerv-Worth advertised I decided to try it, with results that have been very beneficial. My eyes have fully recovered and I am able to see much better than before. Also, I can get a much better night's rest and have gained strength. I do not hesitate to recommend Nerv-Worth for such troubles. Indeed, I want fellow-sufferers to know what good it has done."

This is the remarkable indorsement of Nerv-Worth given by Mrs. A. Brightman of No. 62 Mayflower Flats, Newark. It shows the wonderful remedial scope of Nerv-Worth. Here is a case in which even eye-troubles have been overcome by the new nerve tonic. If the reader has any form of nervous disorders let him ask Mr. T. J. Evans about Nerv-Worth, at his drug store. He can tell you of many cases as strongly as this. Nerv-Worth is guaranteed. Money back if the medicine fails to help.

A piano out of tune is a constant nightmare to the good musician, who is called here and there and asked to play. A good piano in good condition, touched by the masterhand will send forth a blending of harmonious tones, unrivaled by any other one instrument in the world.
